The Porteous & Mitchell Co. announce that their general fall opening will take place beginning Saturday. Sept. 26, and will continue up to and including Saturday, Oct 3. This annual fall opening event has come to be regarded as a feature of considerable importance to all the people of New London and Windham counties, as it is upon this occasion that the public is given a first view of the new styles in fall merchandise. Not only has there been arranged an attractive display of new merchandise but to add to the interest of the occasion a number of special offerings have been provided, which represent opportunities for economy that are worthy of consideration.

visitors to the store on Saturday visitors to the store on Saturday and next week will be surprised and delighted at the extent and variety of the display. Starting at the top or third floor they will find a broad and satisfying exhibit of floor coverings and drapery materials, everything fag beautifying the home. On this floor are also shown the famous "F. & M." sewing machines which are giving satisfaction in hundreds of homes hereabout and which have revolutionized the selling of sewing machines by affording an opportunity to purchase a dependable sewing machine at about one-third the price formerly charged for these necessary household articles. This floor is also the home of the Edisent Diamond Disc Phonograph and visitors to the store are invited to call at the music room on the third floor, at any time, and hear this wonderful instrument. ors to the store on Saturday ditorium Monday. ditorium Monday.

The biggest and by far the best bill of the season is booked for this house the first three days of next week and will be headed by a big, musical comedy act, "The Boys and Girls of Bonnie Scotland". There are eight people in this act, six girls and two men, and it is a good lively girl act with special scenery and electrical effects and several changes of costumes all of which are very nifty. Everything in the act is new and it comes to rwich after playing several of the best vaudeville theatres in and around Boston. Joe Edmonds and Gertrude Lang, two well known musical comedy entwo well known musical comedy en-tertainers have the leading roles and the management of the act should be congratulated in having such a clever congratulated in having such a clever pair in the leads. There are several song numbers in which the chorus takes part principle among which are "Love Seldom Lasts Longer Than the Honey." "Anything to Escape That" and "Listen and I Will Tell You". The act runs twenty-five minutes, is full of life, bright witty lines, amucing situations, and very pretty dancing situations, and very pretty dancfull of life, bright witty lines, amucing situations, and very pretty dancing by the chorus.

Another very clever act on Monday's bill will be Eldridge, a wonderful equilibrist, acrobat and hand balancer, who has just finished a tour of the Poli houses throughout New England, Lockhardt, a very clever raz-time plano player will complete the bill which will be the best vaudeville bill seen in the city of Norwich in the last six months.

Today's show at this popular house is a very good one and contains three high class vaudeville acts and one of the best three reel pictures ever seen

BETTER THAN WISHING.

you wish the world were better! Let me tell you what to do. a watch upon your actions, keep them always straight and true; your mind of selfish motives, let your thoughts be clean and high, can make a little Eden of the sphere you occupy.

Do you wish the world were wiser:
Well, suppose you make a start,
By accumulating wisdom in the scrapbook if your heart.
Do not waste one page on folly, live
to learn and learn to live,
If you want to give men knowledge you must get it ere you give.

Do you wish the world were happy
